-Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cowgill entertained a number of their friends at their beautiful home, Friday night last. One of the interesting features was different definitions of the one cent—each invited guest bringing a copper cent, and each expected to give as many definitions as the mind could suggest. We learn that 20 entirely different definitions were made, but that the hospitality and each creating much interest and pleasure. We haven't money won the prize and Mr. Geo. Heim the books. Refreshments rare and tasteful were served.

-A good lady of Hickman, highly esteemed by us, writes a rather caustic note criticizing the Courier for not leading in some enterprises to build up Hickman, calling it "old fogies." The Courier would be glad to aid, encourage and promote any movement or enterprise for the improvement of the town and community, but the Courier does not aspire to any degree of leadership. We haven't money enough to lead in business, nor the ability to lead in society, nor courage to lead in war, nor ability to lead in politics, and too good to lead in love affairs, and therefore we are not ranked as a leader. If, however, in all courtesy and affection, this good lady would invest some of her money at home it might bear good fruit for herself and the community.

THE HOLINESS MEETING.

The Experience of a Good Lady.

The Sanctificationists, or holiness people, as they are sometimes called, are building a considerable following in Hickman and the surrounding neighborhood. They will soon commence the erection of a house of worship of their own in East Hickman. The following is an accurate report of the experience of one of the members, a worthy lady, who has received the second blessing.

I will write my experience, or a part of it, for each day seems to bring new light and new experience, praise the Lord. I do praise the Lord for free and full salvation.

I was solemnly converted August 20, 1879. I joined the M. E. Church, south. I was told to grow in the grace and in the knowledge of our Lord, Jesus Christ, and wished to do so, but I soon found an impediment in my soul to such a growth. Just what it was, I do not know, impatience seemed to be my besetting sin. I would lose my patience, get fretted, and sometimes would say harsh things, after which I would have a desperate struggle. There seemed to be two spirits in my heart, continually at war with each other, each trying to gain the mastery. The good spirit in ways got the victory over the bad one but only after such awful conflicts.

There were no holiness meetings here until this winter. Brothers Hall and O'Donnell have been holding holiness meetings here. I went to hear them preach, the first time on January 1st, and was converted for Sanctification. I could neither eat nor sleep for two days and nights. I went back to the meetings to the altar determined never to come away without the blessing. I had wept and prayed all the night before, but had made a tall contrition. I knew it was the will of God, even my sanctification. I saw it was in the great plan of redemption. I realized it was unto me according to my faith.

I became deaf to those who were trying to instruct me, the tears ceased to flow, my line refused to frame a word, my heart was free from all my sins, and for words—my soul was lifted up to God in its last and awful struggle. When the cry went from my heart, Lord, I believe! Then the struggle was over. Glory to God forever! He cleansed me from all unrighteousness. I am a sweet and abiding peace in my soul. He is my Saviour, my Sanctifier, my Healer and coming King. Bless the name of our Father who sits upon the throne, and who has made us a people of holiness and joy this side of Heaven. I am so happy. Hallelujah!

I have fallen under the mighty power of God several times in the last four weeks, and have had five very distinct and most wonderful visions. I have been permitted to go in sight and hearing of the glory of God. The cry of "lost! lost! lost!" echo and resound through those awful regions. They ring in my ears. Then I was shown Heaven. Its glories no one can describe. I heard music, both vocal and instrumental, such music this world has never heard. I heard them shout, "Glory to God, in the highest!" and hallelujahs forever and ever. That, too, was set to music, everything was in perfect harmony.

I feel that the things God has revealed to me is so very sacred I could not speak or write about them. The glory of God and the salvation of the religious soul; but I am willing to write, to talk, to do anything for my Saviour. Praise His holy name forever. I need to be a very quiet Christian, but, when I do, I can keep my heart close at a time; I cannot help telling what the Lord has done for me. Glory to God!

Mrs. Mary Milner, Dead.

The sad intelligence was received in Hickman yesterday morning of the death of Mrs. Mary Milner, the daughter of Dr. P. T. of Fulton.

She was young, well educated, accomplished by the best grades and virtues of life; married a year or so since, the idol of a devoted and loving husband, and the hearts of those friends are bowed in grief over the affliction.

MARRIED.

BACON-JONES-SANDERS-BALLOU.

This afternoon at 1 o'clock, a double wedding was solemnized in the parlors of the Palace Hotel, between Mr. L. H. Bacon and Miss Annie Jones, and Harry W. Saunders and Miss Rosie Ballou. Rev. J. R. Williams, of Hornsbeck, officiating in his usually happy and impressive manner.

The contracting parties are some of the best people of near State Line, Ky., and have a host of friends in their vicinity who will join in their congratulations and best wishes for a very happy married life.

The following young couples accompanied them to Union City: Albert Jones and Miss Lida Maddox; Lou Wheeler and Miss Lida Ballow; Curly Henry and Miss Ogie Leet; Edwin Mosler and Miss Annie Roper; John Roper and Miss Beattie Maddox; Hugh Saunders and Miss Emma Ballou; Rice Ballow and Miss Lottie Graves, and also Mr. Marshall McDaniel and Mr. Marshall Rice.—Union City Commercial-Courier, 15th inst.

Brage-Morris.

Mr. W. M. Brage and Miss Nora Morris, of Oaktown, Ky., were united in the holy bonds of wedlock at noon yesterday, at the residence of Dr. P. M. Trevelyan, Esq. & his family.

The young couple are popular young Kentuckians and have many friends who congratulated them upon their return home.—Union City Commercial-Courier, 15th inst.

There is no better medicine for the babies than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures make it a favorite with mother and small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds, preventing pneumonia or other serious consequences. It also cures croup and has been used in tens of thousands of cases without a failure so far as we have been able to learn. It not only cures croup but it soothes the inflamed throat and prevents the attack. In cases of whooping cough it lightens the tough mucus, making it easier to expectorate, and lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms. Anything that deprives the child of a good night's sleep, and the disease of allidragm consequences. For sale by Cowgill & Cowgill, Hickman, and M. B. Shaw, State Line, Druggists.

Grand Rivers.

The Furnaces There Have Been Sold to New York Capitalists.

The Grand Rivers furnaces and the property belonging to the company has been sold to a New York syndicate. The deed to the property has already been lodged for record in the county clerk's office at Smithland, in Livingston county. There are two $100,000 furnaces and a $15,000 office building besides several thousand acres of iron ore land included in the big deal. The iron ore lands lie in Lyon and Livingston counties. It is understood that the purchasers propose to have a steel and various other iron plants to be operated in connection with their business.—Paducah News.

Two Prisoners Overpower Jailer of Hickman County.

On Thursday evening of last week, at Clinton, two prisoners, Frank Grant, under sentence to the penitentiary for burglary, and Ed Natts, charged with forgery, attempted to overpower Jailer Spicer in the jail corridor. They had almost choked him down, when he got his pistol arm working. Natts was shot in the arm, breaking the bone, and Grant was shot in the neck. None of the prisoners escaped. While both men are seriously wounded, they will probably recover. The jailer, an old Confederate soldier, is all sides congratulated on his being for his plucky fight.

Two Tickets.

There are two presidential tickets already in the field. One ticket, Wharton and Danenly, representing a populist faction, has been for months in evidence. The other was nominated last week by the Socialist Labor party at its national convention in Rochester—Job Harrison, of Los Angeles for President; Max Hayes of Cleveland, for vice-president.—Nashville Banner.

THE BOY WAS BENEFITED

His Parents Had a Failing Out and He Came Out a Winner in Consequence

"The other afternoon," said the man in the box office of a theater, "a boy came to me and said, 'Are there any good and I want to look from a play from the box office.' The night which had been torn into a hundred pieces or so, and then cleverly pasted together again. 'Oh, yes, my child,' but how this strange accident happen to the box office? The boy said, 'I saw a picture' came home with them last night, and showed them to mamma, and he seemed to be in such a good humor somehow that mamma thought it would be a good time then to tell him how she was so glad to see him. He told him of it, but he got so mad that he said that every night now he wouldn't come home till after 12 o'clock, and he told me to tell his mamma that he was sorry. He said, 'Heaven's sake, when I got married, I look like a fool.'"

The following extracts from a letter written to Mr. Benj. Davis, Canadian Government Agent at St. Paul, Minn., give an excellent idea of what is said of Western Canada by those who have gone there during the past two or three

"When we first arrived here and took up our homes on the prairie near Dallas, Texas, we were told that the country was full of 'blues,' but now all hands are settled to business, hale, hearty and contented, enjoying the finest winter we have ever seen. There are good crops of wheat and corn, and a comfortable situation, with a favorable preparation for a crop, and all hopeful. I think this is a very fine country, and if the past season's crop had been as good as this, it would have proved me comfortably situated. I am sure I believe this is going to be the Wheat Field of the West. It is clearing up fast. In this township last spring there were 25 quarter-sections of wheat, and now there are 100. I can stand at my house and count 100 houses where there was not one last spring, with six more to go up this spring. This is only a sample of what the country is doing. Next summer I would like a church next summer, right close to my place, so we will be right in line. It would have amused you to have been here last spring. There times in the spring the prairie is not very inviting, and of course lots were discontented. There was one in the crowd who jumped on me for putting a letter in the paper, only for which he your world have come here, and, I am glad to say, they have got to place, and to-day claims he would save a Thousand Dollars and move out. I am glad he is satisfied.

My dear friend, Mr. John Finney is about to move out in March, with his family, and also one of my sons, and you can do for them to assist them in their journey, if it is at all possible, will be greatly appreciated by me. I will close for this time, and will write again soon. I am glad to hear you are living. Drop us a few lines to let us know how things are moving in St. Paul. Yours Respectfully,

PREVENTED BY

Cuticura SOAP

MILLIONS of Women Use CUTICURA SOAP, exclusively, for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and healing red, rough, and sore hands, in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations, and chafings, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, and many sanative and antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women and mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. No amount of persuasion can induce those who have once used it to use any other, especially for preserving and purifying the skin, scalp, and hair of infants and children. CUTICURA SOAP combines delicate emollient properties derived from CUTICURA, the great skin cure, with the purest of cleansing ingredients and the most refreshing of flower odors. No other medicated soap ever compounded is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair, and nails, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and healing red, rough, and sore hands, in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations, and chafings, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, and many sanative and antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women and mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Thus it combines in ONE SOAP at ONE PRICE, viz., TWENTY-FIVE CENTS, the BEST skin and complexion soap, and the BEST toilet and BEST baby soap in the world.

Cuticura Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humour, consisting of CUTICURA SOAP (50c.), to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle, CUTICURA OINTMENT (50c.) to instantly allay itching, inflammation, and irritation, and soothe and heal, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT (50c.) to cool and clear the blood. A SINGLE SET is often sufficient to cure the most torturing, disfiguring and humilitating skin, scurf, and blood humours, with loss of hair, when all else fails. POTTER, D. AND C.
